

Course syllabus as designed and approved by Osmania University is followed. Major functional areas of Marketing, Finance, Human Resource Management are taken care of in four semesters while designing the syllabus. Information Technology application for management, a practical oriented subject is also incorporated in the syllabus to equip the students for global competition. International Business and International Finance papers provide adequate insights for the students to develop global competencies.

The syllabus also covers areas like Organization Behavior, Supply Chain Management, Compensation Management, Total Quality Management, Operations Research, Operations Management which offers domain knowledge to the students and impart necessary skills.

Workshops are organized in collaboration with industry to enhance soft skills and to impart value added skills for improving employability.